

Hi. This is Bob Brenna, Jr., from the law firm of Brenna & Brenna.

I would like to remind you that the people telling you that you need tort reform are afraid to tell you the REAL statistics because they don't back up what they want you to believe.

They want to destroy a system of justice – but they have no realistic alternatives. If your child is injured because of someone's carelessness – do you really think you could bear to hear that the law provides no system to let a jury decide what is right?

People have rights too, not just the insurance industry.

Fair is fair – if people don't want a civil justice system – then we shouldn't have one – but I have never met a person whose life was destroyed because of a corporation's negligence – who thought they shouldn't have the right to go to court to fight for what they believe in.
