

BILL OF RIGHTS 30 SECONDS

When the decision was made to create a new democracy and to wage war to free ourselves from Britain's rule, those willing to forfeit their lives for freedom realizing it wasn't enough they then wrote the first ten amendments, "The Bill of Rights".

The foundation and corner stone of the greatest country that has every existed.

In a new series we will examine why the Bill of Rights is so precious and why we must defend it at all costs.
